Related software and games:Bubble soccer Bubble soccer, also known as bubble basketball or bubble soccer, is a sport in which players chase a floating ball. History The sport, which combines soccer with basketball, has been played in several countries since the late 1980s. The national governing body for Bubble Soccer is the Bubble Soccer International Federation (BSIF). BSIF was founded in Prague, Czech Republic on July 8, 1989. Current members are: Brazil, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Hungary, India, Mexico, Poland, Slovenia, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Ukraine, and United States. BSIF promotes the game at the youth and international level with games being held in over 40 countries, including: Australia, Brazil, Canada, Denmark, Finland, Greece, Hungary, India, Italy, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Poland, Russia, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. Rules and basics Bubble soccer is played in a standard outdoor field with a goal at each end. The field is divided by a middle line which is typically marked by foam pipes. The players are divided into two teams, the offense and the defense. Players can use hands or feet to gain possession of the ball, however, the ball must be kept within the bubble or it is considered a free kick. Two players are selected from each team to operate the ball and kick it. A bounce (which is illegal) or an intentional kick which will not register counts as 91bb86ccfa
