The mission of the Center for Professional Development (CPD) is to assist members and their staff in the development, adoption, and maintenance of competent and ethical behavior in accordance with the Chiropractic Principles. This mission is accomplished by providing classes, seminars, and workshops to chiropractic students, physicians, and staff. However, the primary function of the Center for Professional Development is to provide continuing education for chiropractors. With the passage of the Nissen Amendment, the Center for Professional Development is charged with providing CLE to chiropractors and their staff in all states that allow chiropractors to participate in CLE programs. To that end, in 2004 the Office of State Councils (OSC) established rules and regulations governing CLE provision for chiropractors. See Standing Order No. 47A. The D.C. Chiropractic Council approved an amendment to 3da54e8ca3
